DEATH OF ADMIRAL ROJESTVENSKY.

Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, who commanded the ill-fated Russian fleet which was annihilated by the Japanese in the Sea of Japan in May, 1905, died at Bad Nauheim, Germany, Sunday night from heart trouble. It is believed that the heart affection resulted from injuries received by the admiral in the battle of the Sea of Japan. The admiral was about 60 years of age.

The battle of the Sea of Japan, otherwise the battle of Tsu Shima, gave Rojestvensky a world-wide notoriety. It was the greatest naval struggle since Trafalgar. Entering the Strait of Tsu Shima, between Korea and Japan, the Russian fleet was attacked by the Japanese under Admiral Togo. Before the engagement commenced Admiral Togo signalled from the flagship Mikasa to the Japanese fleet: "The fate of the Empire depends on this effort. Let every man do his utmost."

Although inferior in the number of their battleships, the skilful tactics and superior range of their guns gave the Japanese a great advantage and enabled them to inflict a crushing defeat on the Russians.

The battle lasted twenty-four hours and included a general engagement and a torpedo attack. The Knisz Souvaroff, the flagship of Admiral Rojestvensky, was blown up, the admiral himself seriously wounded and was rescued by a Russian torpedo-boat destroyer, which was afterward captured by the Japanese, who took Rojestvensky prisoner.

Admiral Voelkersam was killed in the conning tower of the Oslyabya and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff was taken prisoner. Twenty-one ships of the Russian fleet were sunk, including six battleships and four cruisers. Five Russian ships were captured. The Russian loss was estimated at 4,000 killed or drowned and more than 7,000 officers and men taken prisoners. The Japanese in this engagement lost three torpedo boats, 116 officers and men were killed and 538 were wounded.

A naval court of inquiry on June 7, 1906, presented an indictment against Admiral Rojestvensky for surrendering to the enemy, but on July 10 the admiral was acquitted on the ground that he was not in his full senses (he was found unconscious from his severe injuries by the Japanese) and, therefore, was not accountable for what happened at the time of the surrender.

TALLEST BUILDING ON EARTH.

One thousand feet above Wall street, New York, according to plans made public Saturday, is soon to rise the tallest building on earth.

The purposed structure, which is to be erected on a plot 100 by 80 feet on the corner of Broad street, will be 20 feet higher than the Eiffel Tower in Paris; it will be 91 feet higher than the new Equitable Life building and beside it the 700 feet of the Metropolitan Tower and the 612-feet Singer building, now the two highest in New York, will be dwarfed into insignificance. Its lights will be visible to incoming liners 100 miles out at sea.

That plans for the gigantic tower to cost $7,000,000, which is to replace the present Mills building, are under way, was admitted Saturday in the offices of its architect, Ernest Flagg, who planned the Singer building.

THE MURDER OF HAZEL DREW

Though the police are as far as ever from the complete solution of the mystery surrounding the murder of Hazel Drew, whose body was found in Teel Pond, near Troy, N. Y., last week, they are gradually laying bare the secrets of the young woman's life and are discovering many thing that surprise her family and friends.

The latest discovery is that she had not one sweetheart, but many.

Today letters were found that prove that the young woman had a secret love affair, and probably several.

By knowing the names of several men who were in the habit of secretly meeting the girl, detectives believe they will be able finally eliminate all who might be suspected except those directly concerned in her death.

There is a story in circulation to the effect that Hazel often met a Pullman car conductor whose run is between Syracuse and New York.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

LINE OF AIRSHIPS.

Aeroplanes or dirigible balloons will be carrying passengers and freight between New York and Boston within the next eighteen months, if the plans of the American Aerial Navigation Company, which is being organized by Whipple, Sears & Ogden, a law firm of Boston, are carried out. The American Aerial Navigation Company, according to the backers, is created for the purpose of manufacturing and operating aerial devices and the establishment of aerial routes for the transportation of freight and passengers in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. The first experiments will be made with small dirigibles, with a carrying capacity of two passengers in addition to the operator.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis. says: "I have only taken four doses of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS — ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 21, 1908.

GOVERNOR HOKE SMITH sent to the Georgia legislature yesterday a special message giving his reasons for removing Joseph M. Brown as a member of the state railroad commission in 1907. Mr. Brown is the present governor-elect, having defeated Gov. Smith in the recent democratic primary. The governor in his message reviews the act of the railroad commission reducing rates in Georgia, this action having been opposed by Mr. Brown. "While I concede the right of any commissioner to disagree to the action of the majority reducing a freight or passenger rate or fixing an obligation upon the railroad companies, I deny his right to remain upon the commission and furnish arguments and evidence for the railroad companies to attack the action of the commission in the courts," reads the message. This Governor Smith charges Mr. Brown with having done, but the latter, having appealed to the people, was sustained to the great discomfit of Gov. Smith, who learned when too late that his demagogic attacks on railroads could be carried too far.

THROUGH the efforts of persons at Wilmington, Del., said to be republican politicians, habeas corpus proceedings were instituted yesterday by an attorney, in behalf of Christopher Brooks, a negro, who is serving forty days in the workhouse for contempt of court in addressing Sarah Archer, a negress, as "Mrs." in the City Court room last Thursday after Judge Edwin R. Cochran had declared that he would not permit a negro to be addressed as "Mr.," "Miss" or "Mrs." The petition which was filed in the office of Prothonotary Speakman, directs the workhouse trustees to produce Brooks in court on Thursday, charging that he is being unjustly detained. Had a judge in the south sent a colored man to jail for addressing colored people as "Mr.," "Miss" and "Mrs." there are some northern republicans who would raise the bloody flag and cry out for vengeance.

TODAY forty-seven years ago was fought the first battle of importance of the civil war. On that hot Sunday, July 21, 1861, the magnificent and well equipped federal army under command of General McDowell, was met and vanquished by the Confederates, with inferior forces, under General Beauregard. That was an exciting day in Alexandria and the old residents will remember how anxiously they listened to the cannons booming as they drew nearer and nearer till they realized that the federal soldiers had been whipped and were making their way back to this city whence, but a few days before, they had marched so confidently "on to Richmond." A year and a month later, August 30, 1862, the federal and Confederate forces again met on the Manassas plains, their positions on the field being almost exactly reversed, when again the Confederate forces were triumphant.

THAT the coal originally in the Pennsylvania anthracite fields aggregated 21,000,000,000 short tons, and in the bituminous fields 112,574,000,000 short tons, leaving in the ground 17,000,000,000 short tons of anthracite and 110,000,000,000 of bituminous, is the estimate of the situation reported by M. R. Campbell, of the United States Geological Survey. He figures that at the rate of production reached in 1907 the available coal supply in Pennsylvania would last about 490 years. This is comforting, but it might just as well be accepted that so long as the present tariff remains it will be 490 years before the price of coal is lowered.

THERE has been another "anti-foreign" outburst in Mexico, "La Patria" directing a tirade against the "Yankees." The Yankee per se is a meddlesome body and brings trouble not only on himself but, unfortunately, on others. It is a pity he cannot be kept at home.

ACCORDING to some of the republican organs the bad times have ceased or have never existed, and the whole story is only a democratic fabrication.

THE New York police have begun their fight on unnecessary noises. Should they come to Alexandria they would surrender unconditionally.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 21.

Legislation by the various states, particularly those of the South, is asserted by the marine hospital and public health service of the federal government in a bulletin today, to be absolutely essential to the eradication of malaria in the United States. The service maintains that the mosquito is responsible for the prevalence of this disease, as well as yellow fever and dengue, and says that laws should be passed, declaring all mosquito breeding places nuisances, prejudical to the public health, and authorizing the proper authority to draw up and enforce, under appropriate penalty, suitable regulations for their prevention and abatement.

In a bulletin issued by the bureau of chemistry, is announced the results of Dr. H. W. Wiley's experiments with the "poison squad" in benzioic acid and benzoate of soda. "There is only one conclusion to be drawn from the data which have been presented" says the report, "and that is, that in the interests of health, both benzoic acid and benzoa of soda should be excluded from food products." Further, it asserts, "results of these investigations have shown that there is not a single article of food preserved by means of benzoic acid or benzoiate of soda, which cannot be preserved and offered to the consumer in perfect condition without the aid of any chemical preservative."

The Police Court today imposed fines upon several proprietors of lunch rooms, cafes, and for failing to provide the proper screening at their places.

NEGROES LYNCHED.

Three negroes, one a minister, have been lynched near Jonesville, Catahoula parish, La., for burning a cotton gin in a spirit of religious frenzy. For some time past Rev. Albert Godlin has been preaching the end of the world to the negroes of Catahoula parish. He began at Harrisonburg, but being driven from there, he moved near Jonesville, where he renewed his preaching. Here, assisted by a negro woman, he preached that he was Christ; that the world would soon come to an end, and the wicked would be punished. Among the wicked, in his declaration, was Capt. J. W. Swayzee, a white farmer, who, he said, would be soon visited by a great misfortune. His sermons caused a great deal of demoralization among the negroes, many of whom left work to await the coming of the end of the world.

The burning of the cotton gin of Capt. Swayzee by incendiaries aroused the suspicion of the authorities. They arrested two negroes, Miller Gaines and Sam Gaines, who confessed that they had, with the assistance and at the suggestion of Rev. Albert Godlin, burned the gin, expecting to arouse the negroes thereby and to point to the destruction of the gin as evidence of the truth of his prophecies. The men were placed in the Jonesville jail, which was broken into by a mob and the men hanged to a neighboring tree.

The woman who was mixed up in the affair escaped.

Arrest of Suspect.

New York, July 21.—Suspected of being August. S. Eberhardt, the New York clerk, who is wanted in connection with the murder of Mrs. Ollie Eberhardt, his aunt, near Coalburg, N. J., a man, who is either insane or who is feigning insanity is held today by the police of Dobb's Ferry, N. Y. The man, who answers in every particular to the description furnished of young Eberhardt except that he appears to be 30 instead of 20 years old, was captured in the woods near Uniontown. He had but $72 with him, and when arrested gave many different addresses in and about New York, talking in an irrational manner. The suspect after arrest betrayed great interest in the Eberhardt murder and this, with the fact that he at first give his name as Herman Eberhardt Zimmerman, leads the police of Dobbs Ferry to think they have the man who shot Mrs. Eberhardt and her daughter. They believe he is feigning insanity. Another curious sidelight on the case is the disappearance in New York of Fred Eberhardt, a sister of the supposed slayer. She vanished from an apartment on the west side where she had been boarding, leaving behind her only a note to a younger brother, George.

The detectives later became convinced that the man under arrest knows nothing of the murder.

Murdered His Wife

New York, July 21.—As the climax of the renewal of an old quarrel, Andrew B. Cropsey, aged 43, a veterinary surgeon, member of the historic family of that name, reputed to be worth $1,000,000, shot and killed his wife, Gertrude Coyes Cropsey aged 38, at their home at Bath Beach today. He fired three shots into her breast, all of them taking effect in the heart. A neighbor heard the shots and telephoned the police station. An officer arriven, found the front door locked, broke open a back door and met Cropsey in the hall with the revolver in his hand. "You may arrest me," he said. "I did it." Cropsey led the way upstairs to his wife's room. She was lying dead on the bed, fully dressed, her bodice covered with blood. The room was in terrible disorder, showing that the woman had fought desperately for her life.

Admiral Rogestvensky Not Dead?

Berlin, July 21.—Like Mark Twain, Admiral Rojestvensky has risen to state that "the report of his death has been greately exaggerated."

A special dispatch received here this afternoon from Bad Nauheim denies that the Russian admiral is dead. It states that another man of the same name passed away there a couple of days ago, and the report was sent to St. Petersburg that the dead man was the former commander.

The situation has resulted in considerable humorous comment in the press here owing to the facts that Russians, who have heretofore treated the defeated commander with scorn have, since the report of his death, rushed into print with glowing testimonials as to his valor and worth.

Refused to Testify.

New York, July 21.—Christopher J. Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, was before the grand jury for three minutes today, but refused to testify. As Acting District Attorney Elder considers Mr. Fitzgerald one of those who may figure in the prosecutions to come, he was not compelled to answer questions but was permitted to leave.

Expelled from Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., July 21.—For continued indulgence intoxicating liquors the Navy Department today dismissed from the Naval Academy here Midshipman Richard E. Trippe, of Kittaning, Pa., son of Major R. E. Trippe, of the army, now on duty at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Trippe would have been graduated from the Academy next June. His case has been under advisement for some time.

News of the Day.

The British House of Lords passed the second reading of the old age pensions bill, thus insuring its becoming a law.

A woman was fatally burned in a powder factory at Jersey City, yesterday when a nail in her shoe struck a spark, igniting some powder.

The message sent by relay messenger boys from the mayor of New York to the mayor of Chicago reached its destination today. 11 hours and 50 minutes ahead of the original schedule.

Rev. Dr. M. B. Wharton, pastor of the Baptist Church in Eufaula, Ala., a brother of the well-known evangelist, Dr. H. M. Wharton, died last night at the Tabernacle Infirmary in Atlanta.

At pistol point, six masked men early today forced Clyde Sharp, cashier of the First National Bank of Ada, Ohio, to leave his bed, go to the bank and open the vault doors. In opening the inner door, however, Sharp set off the fire alarm. The robbers fled, after taking $6 from the cash drawer.

A bill was filed in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday afternoon asking that a receiver be appointed for the Washington Beef and Provision Company. The complainants are the T. T. Keane Company and Charles E. Ebal. The action follows the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Russell T. Briggs, former president of the company, charging him with embezzlement.

The king and queen received more than two hundred of the bishops who attended the recent Pan-Anglican Congress in a farewell audience at Buckingham Palace yesterday afternoon. The Archbishop of Canterbury read an address to his majesty presented by the bishops, to which the king graciously replied. The Archbishop of Canterbury also presented each of the bishops separately to the king, who conversed and shook hands cordially with the bishops.

Bishop Henry C. Potter, who has been ill at Fernleight his summer home near Cooperstown, N. Y., since Saturday, June 27, and whose condition for several days was very critical, was reported worse yesterday after an encouraging period that continued for a week past. The turn for the worse came yesterday. It is reported by those very near the bishop that the condition of the arteries is one of the most alarming symptoms in the present phase of the case, and that life in one of the lower limbs is dormant.

In a pistol duel on the principal street of Monticello, Ga., yesterday, Paul Goolsby and C. C. Greer, two business men, Greer was shot to death, falling on the exact spot where he had killed his brother-in-law thirty years ago. Two shots were exchanged without effect, but Goolsby's third shot struck Greer in the breast. Dropping his pistol Greer seized a rock, and, staggering to his feet, threw the missile at Goolsby, striking his head and nearly knocking him down. Goolsby then approached Greer and shot him in the head, instant death resulting.

A dispatch from Madison, Wis., says the condition of former Postmaster General William Villas remains unchanged. At an early hour today he still remained in the unconscious condition into which he relapsed when he was stricken yesterday.

The summer home of W. B. Dinsmore, at Steatsburg, N. Y., occupied by Robert Huntington, was burglarized last night and silverware worth several thousand dollars carried away.

John Kenrick Bangs, the humorist and author, is going to take the stump for William H. Taft through maine.

THREATENS HIS MOTHER.

Mrs. John King Van Rensselaer, a member of one of New York's oldest families, had her son, John A. Van Rensselaer, a broker, and married, locked up yesterday charge with threatening her life and attempting to extort money from her. The letter reads.

"I have just seen Lawrence Lee, and I am given to understand that you will pay $30 per month for my board if I will go 300 miles from New York and that I must have your written consent to leave the place that you may select.

'Did it ever occur to you that I have an absolute remainder interest in Aunt Frances' estate's securities and that blowing your head off my wife would have an income sufficient to support her?

"I will take that course if necessary, and upon my head will rest the consequences. Thaw is still alive; maybe I will be.

"In any case, my wife, God bless her, will benefit by your demise, even if I don't.

"I have seen many disagreements and much suffering in my life, and I must say that most of it is due to you. A selfish peacock, whose name, in these times, amounts to nothing, and who is almost, if not entirely forgotten, in circles once tread.

"I am now in no humor to be trifled with, and I wish to go on record that I will take action on sight unless something is done at once. You gave Harold $6,000 and a trip to Europe. What have I had for being honest?

"J. A. VAN RENSSELAER."

"I want you to raise, on that fancy name of yours, $5,000 for me. If you are such a great lady, make good; if not, keep out of my sight. I can raise cash enough yet to go to you wherever you are and I have a good name."

Confess to Slaughter.

The Hague, July 21.—A practical confession of guilt was received today from the officers of the Dutch Campaign against the Acheen rebels in northern Sumatra to the charges that women and children were being slaughtered. The slaughter is admitted, but the action is defended on the ground that the women and children are as dangerous fighters as the regular Acheen soldiers. One case citied is that of a hamlet in the Wayla district, which the Dutch surprised at night, captured without a fight and deliberately shot nearly two score women and children along with many of the men inhabitants.

Trolley Cars Collide.

Aurora, Ill., July 21.—About thirty persons were injured, several fatally, it is feared, in a head-on collision between two cars on the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago trolley line at an early hour today. The wreck occurred four miles north of this city and it is believed to have been caused by a misunderstanding of orders. The cars carried about 150 passengers when they collided.

Passengers declare the car leaving Elgin this morning failed to stop at a switch four miles from this city and collided with an Aurora-Elgin car on a curve. Both trains were running at high speed and were telescoped.

Virginia News.

Randolph Jones, aged 21, only son of Mr E. A. Jones, died at Front Royal yesterday of tuberculosis.

Claude W. Allen, aged 23, a tailor from Roanoke, was found dead in his room at a boarding house in Norfolk yesterday. A bullet from a pistol, which lay at his side, had entered his right temple and his head rested in a pool of blood. No motive for suicide is known.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Gaither, jr., of Baltimore, who went abroad immediately after their wedding in March last, have returned and will make their summer home upon the former estate of the late Col. Richard Dulany, in Loudoun county, which property they have just purchased.

Alvah H. Martin, republican national committeeman from Virginia, has gone to the Hot Springs for a conference with Mr. Taft on the situation in Virginia. Pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Martin by leading Second district republicans to have him accept the nomination for Congress from that district.

The large barn in the rear of the handsome home of A. Randolph Howard, of Fredericksburg, with 20 tons of hay, a lot of fine harness and two fine rigs, was destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning. There were only four horses in the stable at the time of the fire, as his fine show horses were at Orange courthouse for the show there this week. Mr. Howard was badly, but not seriously, burned about the face, shoulders and feet in attempting to save his fine stallion Royal Swell, which refused to leave the stable and had to be taken out by main force. Mr. Howard narrowly escaped with his life after going back into the burning building in an effort to save his vehicles. The upper floor of the barn gave way, some of the debris striking him on the head. Mr. Howard is now confined to his bed and will be unable to show his horses himself at the Orange show this week. His loss will be three or four thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance.

RACE RIOT.

A dispatch from Charlottesville says four men, three white and one colored, were seriously hurt in a small race riot at Crozet.

The trouble started when Harry Walker, colored, took a seat in a merry-go-round, beside a young daughter of Richard Bowen.

Bowen ordered the colored man away, but Walker kept his seat, hurling vile epithets at Bowen. The latter made for the negro, but received a clubbing with a blackjack wielded by him.

Bowen then drew his knife, stabbing his antagonist in the cheek. The blade lodged in the jaw of the negro and was broken off at the handle. A dozen other negroes rushed upon Bowen, with the result that he was badly used. Some brought their pistols into play and promiscuous shooting followed.

Andrew Robinson and Albert Morris, the only other white men present, came to the assistance of Bowen, but being outnumbered, they were worsted. Robinson is not expected to live.

Physicians found fourteen separate gashes in Robinson's scalp and face.

ELLYSON TO RUN AGAIN.

Lieutenant Gov. J. Taylor Ellyson will stand for renomination for that position before the democratic primary election next year. He made the first announcement yesterday just before leaving for New York to sail for London, where he goes to look after important business matters. His only avowed opponent up to this time is Mr. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, lawyer and member of the House of Delegates.

"I am hopeful of democratic success in the country this fall," said Mr. Ellyson, referring to the national contest, "and expect the situation to grow brighter as the campaign progresses. I have laid the ground for the work in Virginia for Bryan and Kern and about September 1 will return here and open headquarters for an active fight throughout the State. A short, sharp contest is the thing we want. I have been in correspondence with county and city chairmen and prominent democratic speakers and they are ready to get down to work in good earnest as soon as the proper moment arrives."

BURNED BY EXPLOSION.

By the explosion of a gasoline tank in his automobile Sunday night near Winchester Joseph H. Savage, a wealthy distiller and proprietor of the Kernstown Distillery, Frederick county, was badly hurt. His face and neck were terribly burned and the flesh was burned from his arms and hands. The machine caught fire, and Mr Savage's wife, mother and four children, who were in the car, were in great peril. With blood dripping from his burns and his flesh scorched and blistered, Mr. Savage rescued every member of his family, although he suffered great pain. His wife's clothing caught fire and she was ablaze from head to foot. He seized her and rolled her about on the ground until the flames were extinguished. He then lifted his mother and children from the blazing automobile and afterward sank to the ground exhausted. Mr. Savage's mother was badly burned on the arms. The children escaped injury.

The injured man was taken to the hospital in Winchester and is in a precarious condition.

R. E. LEE STATUE.

The bronze statue of General Robert E. Lee, designed by Edward V. Valentine, of Richmond, and which is to occupy a niche in the Hall of Statuary at the national capitol, has been formally inspected and approved. The statue will represent Virginia in the hall at Washington. All of the commission named by the Virginia Legislature to secure the statute were at Providence, R. I., recently, except Governor Swanson. The commission included R. B. Davis, Petersburg, chairman; Senator Don P. Halsey, Edward Lyle, George E. Sipe, Captain John C. Featherston, H. C. Rice and Judge George L. Christian. With the party was Mr. Valentine, the sculptor, of Richmond. The statue, which is life size, will stand on a five foot pedestal. It is said to be the most perfect and lifelike representation of the great southern chieftain. The general is depicted in full dress uniform. He carries sword and spurs.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Political Outlook.

New York, July 21.—Under the heading "Hitchcock finds Bryan's strength growing in the west," The New York Herald this morning prints a summary and commentary of the Hitchcock conference in Colorado Springs which it calls "a political event of the first magnitude."

Commenting on Hitchcock's entry into national politics, it recalls the fact that both Mark Hanna and Cortelyou had to whip the older members of the national committee into line before they could get even a message of co-operation, and intimates that in his invasion of the west for Taft the candidate's young manager may find serious trouble along the same lines.

The Herald says, "It has been disclosed that the 'Roosevelt country of 1904 has experienced enough change of heart to make half a dozen states that the democrats did not carry in 1904 doubtful and fighting ground."

In a table of probabilities which gives the democrats only the 25 votes of Texas and of Oklahoma as sure and the republicans the 33 votes of Idaho, Kansas, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming, the other states of the west, California, Montana, Colorado, Nebraska and Utah are classed as debatable ground. They total 29 votes and it is hinted that there is danger that Bryan may sweep them all. To Victor Rosewater, national committeeman from Nebraska, is laid the report of Hitchcock that the republican outlook in that state is practically blue.

Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, and other democrats of prominence were interested spectators of the war council, says the Herald. James is quoted as saying:

"The reason Hitchcock is holding his conference out here is because we have got him scared."

To this Hitchcock is quoted as replying:

"Perhaps Mr. James is not scared now, but I am sure he will be when the result of our plans becomes apparent to him later on. I would sooner be scared now than in November."

Bryan Sends Details of Case.

Lincoln, Neb., July 21.—William J. Bryan today sent to Washington for full particulars of the court proceedings there which affected Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Secretary Frank Morrison, of the same organization and John Mitchell, of the executive council and former head of the United Mine Workers of America. The case against these labor leaders come directly under the application of the plank in the democratic platform referring to injuntions in labor disputes, and it will be used as an illustration by the leader of the democracy in the campaign.

Especially, he believes, the hearing will show the necessity of the enactment of a law suggested by the democracy in its platform granting the defendants the right of a jury trial. The alleged contempt, Mr. Bryan holds, was not committed within the presence of the court and the court should not have the right to punish summarily.

If the democratic leaders have their way, the case will go on for disposal on September 3rd, the date set by Justice Sanderson for the accused to appear in court. This is two months before election, so if the three leaders are adjudged guilty, it will bring the situation directly home to organized labor throughout the United States and the democratic leaders here declare it will be of great benefit to them. While Bryan declines to discuss the subject for publication, it is intimated he will make a statement as soon as he can familiarize himself with the case.

The Olympic Games.

London, July 21.—Gamemess of the athletes from the United States in the Olympic games, their prowess and manly conduct in the face of adverse rulings and conditions, have at last won the slow yielding admiration of the British, and today the American athletes were cheered by the English whenever they entered or left the stadium. The attitude of the British shows a complete "reversal of form." Heretofore when an American beat an Englishman, one might have thought the king had died from the gloom that settled over the British section; but today when W. W. May, the University of Illinois athlete, lost his heat in the 200 meters race to Kerr, the Canadian, after a magnificent struggle, the Britishers got right up and gave the vanquished lad a mighty cheer. It was the same, too, when Americans won. It looks as though England tired of the ridicule of other nations and were making a tremendous effort to show the world that she can accept a defeat.

Charged With Enticing Girls.

Philadelphia, July 21.—Charged with luring two Baltimore girls from their homes under promise of marriage, and, it is alleged, afterward endeavoring to force them into a life of shame, Robert Riley, 25 years of age, and Henry Bradley, 22 years of age, both of Baltimore, were held in police court here today in default of bail. The girls, Agnes Neal, and Annie Krumboltz, were committed to the Magdelen Home to await word from their relatives. In the police court the girls stated that they were enticed from their homes ten days ago under promise of marriage and went to Philadelphia. After being in this city for three days the men announced that they had run out of funds and tried to force the girls into a life of shame. The girls rebelled and sought shelter from the police, who after hearing their story arrested the men.

Bishop Potter's Condition.

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 21.—Paralysis of the legs, it is said, indicates the approach of death to Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, who has been ill for weeks. Today after a night in which the bishop was in a most serious condition, his physicians, Doctors J. F. and Edmund Janvryn and M. I. Basset, are increasing the quantities of oxygen used to keep life in the aged churchman, and morphine is being freely used to allay the pain from which he suffers. He may live for a few days or death may come at any hour.

The Uprising in Macedonia.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—M. Touchard, French Ambassador to Russia, and Russian Foreign Minister Iavolsky today reached an agreement that France and Russia will go to the aid of Turkey if the sultan proves unable to crush the Macedonian uprising. Other powers, they say, will be forced to join them in preserving the integrity of the Turkish empire.

Joined by heavy reinforcements, Rachin Khan, leader of the shah's troops, made an unexpected attack on Tabriz, from which he was driven last week, and after a sharp bombardment, recapture the town from the revolutionists, according to an official communication received here today.

M. Pohitonoff, the Russian consul in Tabriz, wired that the populace was begging him to protect the women and children from violence at the hands of Rachin Khan's soldiers.

The details of the recapture of the city are lacking, but from Pohitonoff's message it is believed that another ruthless carnage is being enacted.

Following the evacuation of the city by Ranchin Khan the revolutionists put many of the loyalists to death, and in revenge for this the shah's soldiers will repeat the atrocities that marked their first entry into the city.

Salonica, Macedonia, July 21.—Following the assassination of the Turkish colonel commanding the garrison in Seres today by mutinious under officers, the entire garrison has gone over to the mutineers and is being joined by hundreds of armed civilians. The Turkish colonel was attacked by a dozan of his men, yet before he fell, pierced by 32 mortal shots, he succeeded in wounding four of his assailants.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. COLD KILLS THE GERM.

Lieut. Peary Says There Are No Bald Heads in the Arctic Region.

The people who come back from Klondike testify to the fact that no native bald heads are there. The evidence is that the cold climate kills the germs that eat the hair off at the root. Lieut. Peary, who went to the Arctic Regions, gives the same evidence. Newbro's Herpicide has the same effect as the cold climate. It kills the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, and the hair grows again. Herpicide is the first hair remedy built upon the principle of destroying the germ that eats the hair off. Its phenomenal sale demonstrates the correctness of the scalp germ theory.

WEDDING.

The home of Mrs. A. Davis on Prospect avenue was the scene of the prettiest wedding of the season on the afternoon of Thursday last, when Miss Mary Davis plighted her troth to Mr. John Lawrence Hugh Todd. Mary's girl friends had beautifully decorated the double parlors with English ivy, ferns and daisies. A display of lovely gifts in linen, handpainted china, cut glass and silver, added to the attractiveness of the scene. The guests consisting of Mary's girlhood friends and the most intimate friends of the family assembled a little after 2 o'clock. Promptly at 2:30 the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were softly played by Miss Isabelle Murphy and the young couple took their places beneath a flower bedecked arch of ivy and myrtle. The ring ceremony of the Episcopal Church was used, the rites being solemnized by Rev. Dr. Dickinson of St. James Church. The bride looked lovely and girlish in a traveling dress and hat of Copenhagen blue which set off to advantage her red gold hair. The groom in the usual black apparel was manly and dignified. As soon as the ceremony was performed a shower of best wishes and congratulations were heaped upon the young couple. A crowd of young people accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Todd to the station. All who were present claimed a farewell kiss from the young bride, and the groom exercised his privilege of kissing the young ladies amid much laughter and throwing of rice. As the bride and groom stood on the platform in the golden sunshine of the summer afternoon—young, strong and happy—one felt that their married life had indeed begun auspiciously. The picture the bride made with her bright hair, blushed cheeks and radiant smile as she waved good-bye to her friends is one that will not soon be forgotten. As the train moved slowly out Mr. and Mrs. Todd have to remember a bevy of smiling faces, a last shower of rice, and a chorus of happy voices calling after them to wish them "health, long life and happiness." Mr. Todd is a comparative stranger to many of our people, but is a hustling and successful young business man who has made many friends here. His bride has lived in Eureka Springs all her life and is known to all our people, who love her and hope for her all possible happiness in her marital ties. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Dallas, Tex., where they will attend the Elks' convention. From there they will go to New Orleans where they will take steamer to Norfolk, Va., their journey so far outlined to terminate at the home of the groom, in Alexandria, Va. Mr. Todd has not definitely decided on a permanent location as yet, but has two or three splendid offers, one of which is at Pittsburg, Kans., where he may locate—[Eureka Springs (Ark.) Times-Echo.

ACCIDENT TO A LADY.

Mrs. C. C. Wells, living at 1311 Duke street, fell at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and Twelfth street, Washington, about 9 o'clock Sunday night, and though she was painfully hurt, an infant which she carried in her arms escaped injury. Mrs. Wells and her three little children had boarded a car to connect with the electric railway to this city, the mother and baby taking a seat in the rear of the two older children. At Twelfth street, it is said, Mrs. Wells, with the infant in her arms, stepped off. The conductor, presuming all the passengers for that point were off, signaled the motorman to go ahead. Realizing the other children were about to be carried on Mrs. Wells, it is stated, called to the conductor to stop, and at the same time caught hold of the car. She was thrown violently to the ground, her head striking the pavement. She held the infant at arm's length and saved it. Passengers stopped the car and Mrs. Wells proceeded to her home in this city.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Appearing in a drinking resort at Somerset Beach at 11 o'clock last night, William Bowe, a negro, thirty years old, leaned over the table where his wife was sitting with another man and shot her through the temple, killing her instantly. The negro then flourished the revolver, and when persons near by had retreated to a safe distance, he turned the weapon on himself, and fired a shot through his heart. He died immediately. Both bodies were conveyed to Washington on the Jane Moseley and are at the morgue. Bowe's wife left home early in the evening, and meeting the man who was with her at the time of the shooting, went with him to Somerset Beach, a negro resort. Bowe returned home shortly after 7 o'clock, and was told by neighbors that his wife had gone to the beach with another man. The negro caught the next boat to the resort. He located his wife in a drinking place with the man. The shooting followed without a word from the husband.

A DENIAL.

The officials of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway emphatically deny the rumor that has recently been circulated to the effect that the company intends at some future day to run trains around Alexandria instead of through the streets, as at present. They say the surveyor's pegs mentioned in the Gazette's reference to the rumor are being used in connection with the laying off of sub-divisions in the vicinity of Spring Park.

Superintendent Percy E. Clift regards the rumor as absurd, and he gives many reasons to show the impracticability of the company building a road around the city.

The travel between Alexandria and Washington supports the road and that between Alexandria and the Dyke is increasing all the time, and Mr. Clift says the company intends to make certain improvements at that point for the accommodation of picnic parties.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED UNDER NEW CHARTER.

The Washington Monument Association met yesterday evening in Judge Norton's office, Mr. Wm. B. Smoot presiding and Mr. Alex. J. Wedderburn as secretary.

A quorum being present it was stated by Judge Norton that the State Corporation Commission had granted the new (or amended charter) and the association by vote accepted the same and adopted such other resolutions as were necessary to comply with the law.

The old association (composed of the same membership) adopted resolutions transferring to the new one all of its rights, franchises, privileges and assets, together with its liabilities, and then the new association adopted a resolution accepting the assets and liabilities.

The necessity for securing a new charter was made necessary for two vital reasons.

First. The old association was not authorized to sell or hold land except enough to build a monument upon, and Second. That property had to be located in the city limits.

It being impractical to secure land enough within the corporation limits for a park the association, as has heretofore been stated in the Gazette, decided to purchase Shooter's Hill and sell half of the property as a sub-division and devote the remainder for park purposes, paying therefor $20,000.

Mr. D. J. Howell surveyed the property and by authority of the association Secretary Wedderburn sold the lots. The present association is practically a continuation of the original organization.

During the meeting a number of resolutions were adopted, the principle being one to authorize a bond issue of $15,000.

Another appointing a committee to arrange for and call a meeting of the lot purchasers, composed of Messrs. C. C. Leadbeater, John W. May, F. L. Slaymaker and Alex. J. Wedderburn.

Mr. John W. May was away from the city when the signatures to the new charter were made, but upon motion he was unanimously elected as a member of the association.

The committee on a call from lot owners held a meeting this morning in the office of Mr. Frank L. Slaymaker and adopted in substance the following:

A meeting of the lot purchasers shall be held August 3rd and simple restrictive building rules shall be submitted for the approval, rejection or amendment of the meeting. And the two following plans of selecting lots:

First That slips numbered with either even or odd alternate lots to be placed in a box and the names of the 104 lot purchasers in another, to be drawn by one or two parties to be selected by the lot owners.

Second 104 numbers of lots to be placed in a box and drawn for choice by a person to be selected by the meeting.

The secretary to send a map of the sub-division to each purchaser together with a ticket to the meeting and a blank proxy to be filled by him or her in case it is impossible to be present.

The lot owners are to be requested to select a committee of five to look after their interests and co-operate with the association in the development of George Washington Park.

ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION.

Alleged discrimination against Washington in the matter of rates for passengers to and from that city was discussed at considerable length yesterday by the executive committee of the Washington Chamber of Commerce. It had been stated that a man could take a trolley to Alexandria, purchase his ticket here over any of the trunk-line railroads to the south or west, and save from $2 to $5 on the trip, according to the distance he might travel. It was voted that the secretary should immediately take up the matter with the railroad companies, find out the real facts in the matter, and report, if practicable, at the next meeting.

THE A. L. I.

The Alexandria Light Infantry met last night at Armory Hall, when the new uniforms were distributed and the men fully equipped. Later the men marched up King street and then returned to the armory, where a short drill was held. Drills will again be held tonight and tomorrow night. The proposed bivouac at Rosemont on Wednesday night has been abandoned and the men will report at the armory at 4:30 o'clock on Thursday morning when they will march to Henry street and take the train for Chickamauga Park, Ga., where the Virginians, with other troops, will go into camp for ten days.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Benjamin Quill, colored, charged with stealing a guitar, was fined $5.

Lucinda Jackson, colored, charged with assaulting a child of Harriet Williams, colored, was fined $5.

Edward Wood, colored, charged with assaulting Eunice Wood, was fined $5.

Guy Jackson and Duck Day, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Suit has been filed in Washington by Martin Dehn, a stenographer of Buffalo, N. Y., against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway for $5,000 damages due to injuries alleged to have been received July 1, 1907, while on one of the company's cars. The bill states that the car on which Mr. Dehn was riding left the track and rolled down an embankment, throwing him across the car and causing permanent injuries.

MRS. BROWN AND HER CHILDREN RECOVERING.

Intelligence received in this city today from Portsmouth states that Mrs. W. A. Brown is improving and that no unfavorable symptoms have set in. The Norfolk Ledger says:

Attending physicians of the wife of Rev. William Ambrose Brown, who Saturday administered carbolic acid to her two infant children and then drank of the poison herself, say that while Mrs. Brown is not yet out of danger her improvement has been such with no complications the danger point will have passed in the next few days. It is announced from Portsmouth that the children, will both recover.

No statement from Mrs. Brown has been given out since she admitted having administered the poison to the children and herself. There is no doubt of the fact that Mrs. Brown was temporarily unbalanced when she committed the awful deed. She had been extremely nervous for a week and her condition reached a climax on Saturday. Though burned on the neck, arm and breast by the acid, William, the 3-year-old son, is rapidly recovering from the awful experience. The eight-months-old infant, Mary, who was thought to be dying when oxgen was administered, has shown rapid improvement, and is today considered out of danger.

DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENT.

Accident, was the verdict of the coroner's jury in Washington which inquired yesterday morning into the death of Mrs. Cora Summers, of this city, who died at Freedmen's Hospital. Mrs. Summers fell from a Fourteenth street car several days ago when near the corner of S street northwest. It is supposed she had intended to go to her sister's home, on S street, and that she became excited when she found the car had passed that street, and accidentally fell when she got up from her seat. Following the inquest her body was conveyed to this city for burial. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of Mr. W. F. Baker, 214 south Alfred street. Rev. W. M. Poisal, pastor of Bethany Methodist Protestant Church, conduced the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. W. Arnold, M. Keen, L. Fahney, J. Hough, of Alexandria, and Messrs. C. Spates, and C. C. Conrad, of Washington.

DEATH OF ANTHONY POWER.

Mr. Anthony Power, a well-known resident of this city, died at the Alexandria Hospital shortly after noon today. The deceased was taken sick yesterday in the city market and was assisted to the station house where he remained till today when his condition became alarming. It was then decided to send him to the hospital and Officer Sherwood procured a vehicle and accompanied him to that institution. After reaching the hospital and while the attendants were preparing to place him in the bath tub he suddenly expired. Mr. Power had recently resided in the Braddock House. For a long time he was engineer at the power house of the Alexandria Water Company. He was about 65 years old.

ATTACHMENT.

Messrs. J. M. Duncan and J. E. Jones, sub-contractors, yesterday, through their attorneys, Messrs. C. C. Carlin and H. W. Smith, filed in Lynchburg a mortgage lien for $26,500 against Russell & Oliver, contractors, who did the work of double tracking the Southern Railway near Lynchburg. At the same time the engines, machinery, &c., belonging to Messrs. Russell & Oliver were attached. Messrs. Duncan & Jones were sub-contractors under Russell & Oliver and claim that they have not been paid their money.

STRAY COWS.

I saw in the Gazette yesterday evening that a man who lives outside the city limits and who, of course, has no vote in Alexandria, was fined for allowing his cows to stray into the city. Why are not some Alexandrians, whose horses and cows are on the streets at all times, frequently endangering the lives of children, arrested and made to comply with the laws? Are all the policemen blind?

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Bids for the erection of a new school building for white girls were opened today by a special committee of the school board and the contract was awarded to George Leigh & Bros., of Louisa, whose bid of $27,672 was the lowest. The contract for the plumbing was given to J. B. Hughes, of this city, for $534. The contract for the heating and ventilating was not awarded, as the committee wants to make further inquiries into these matters.

The new building will be erected on the north side of Prince street between Patrick and Henry streets and will be of brick and concrete. It will be two stories in height, and will contain all modern conveniences. Plans for the structure were drawn by Architect Robinson, of Richmond. The building will have a tile roof and the partitions, halls and furnace room are to be fireproof and is to be completed by the middle of next January.

There were twelve bidders, the highest of whom was Richardson & Burgess, of Washington—$38,700, not including the heating apparatus and plumbing.

The other bidders were F. L. Wagner, of Washington; Febrini & Wyne, of Washington; J. C. Curtis, of Newport News; Haymes Bros., of Whittles Depot; A. M. Walkup, of Richmond, and S. D. Devaughn, Harris Bros., J. F. Rodgers, J. W. Deavers, and Ware & Gayle, of Alexandria.

The Circus and the Arab Steed.

Circuses are perhaps more to blame for the misrepresentation of the Arab horse than any other source. A friend of mine owns a circus, and I saw his posters a few years ago claiming to exhibit eighteen or twenty of the only Arabian horses brought to America. He said they were captured with great difficulty and brought to New York by a special permit of the sultan; that they were of the family known in history as the eagle feather horses, so much prized in the queen of Sheba's days; that they were snow white, with big markings in their spots of the tip of eagle feathers. We don't have to believe everything we read on the circus posters. In this case I am mighty certain these "spotted Arabians" were bought at Albany, Ore. The most peculiar part of this spotted horse business is this, and it is not a very strange reason when you know it, that spotted anything is created by a mixture of different races or different breeds, and that likely accounts for the fact that the Arabian desert in all its history has never produced a spotted, or piebald, horse, possible from the fact that there is never any mixture of blood.—Homer Davenport in Woman's Home Companion.

Popular Approval of Theft.

The idea of private property has never been fully accepted by the masses of the people and never had their cordial approval as an institution. The most popular songs and ballads of our nation in all ages, it may be noted, have been those which described sympathetically attacks on private property from the Robin Hood cycle to the broad sheets in which Turpin and Sheppard were made heroes. Even nowadays the literature that really touches the people, the literature that the educated classes seldom so much as see exposed for sale, the literature that is sold in the small "general" shop in the back street and costs fewer pennies than the novel we know costs shillings, still very largely deals with the romantic exploits of the robber. He is never a villain; he is noble and generous to a fault, but he is convinced of the impropriety of persons having too much money.—London News.

"Going to the Dogs."

The phrase "going to the dogs" has puzzled the explainers of metaphorical expressions rather needlessly. It has even been suggested that it is a profane perversion of "going to the gods," and an allusion has been detected to "canis," the dog throw, the worst throw with the dice among the ancient Romans. Shakespeare's "Throw physic to the dogs" and the Scriptural "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs" have been quoted in connection with the expression. But it seems a fairly obvious reference to the fate of the wornout horse, condemned to be slaughtered. The old Greek curse, "Go to the crows!" may be compared, referring as it did to the Greek's horror of having his body left unburied as food for carrion birds.—London Spectator.

Fisherman's Luck.

Speaking of fishing, "fishermen's luck," "lucky fishermen," etc., what does it all mean anyhow? To say a man is a lucky fisherman is merely to admit his superiority as a fisherman over other fishermen. The fish are in the water. We all have the same chance to get them, yet some "lucky fishermen" always come home with their fish boxes full and the other fellow gets nothing. In the parlance of the fisherman, the word "luck" really means "knowledge." The "lucky fisherman," you will find, knows the rock holes where the grouper lurks; he knows the channels in and about the patches and passes where the amberjacks and barracuda live; he knows where and how to find and capture the silver mullet for bait; he knows how to bait his hooks for different fish as occasion may require; he knows the style of hook to use for every kind of fish; he is a judge of what style of fishing to do under certain conditions of wind and weather, and, above all, he is untiring in his efforts to use all of his knowledge when he is out for fish.—Miami (Fla.) Record.

One and a Million.

"That's the first time I ever sold a single envelope," said the young woman at a big stationer's store in the city's center. "I've always sold them in packages, but that gentleman came in with a letter in his hand and asked for an envelope, and I sold him one for a cent. I imagine that's the smallest sale that has been made in this establishment since it opened. The biggest I ever made happened to be in the envelope line too. A rather roughly dressed man came in, asked to see our envelopes and wanted to know the price by the thousand. I told him. Then he asked the price by the million. I got the figures from our manager, who smiled as he gave them to me. Yet the man ordered a million envelopes, and when we asked for reference he said he would as lief pay the bill on the spot, which he did from a roll of yellow back bank notes about the size of a loaf of bread. We delivered the envelopes, but haven't seen the purchaser since."—Philadelphia Record.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicines I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa.
